

Lynn Edwin Marvin

1933 – 1999

Lynn was a member of the Marvin family that settled at Lake Louise in 1939. He built his cabin in 1967.

Lynn was a graduate of Albion College. He received his M.A. degree from Western Michigan College, and his Ed.S. degree from Eastern Michigan University.

He, along with members of Sanford United Methodist Church, were the catalysts behind the creation of Camp Sojourner.

After retiring from his position as Special Education Services for Midland Public Schools, he combined two avocations, photography and aviation, to become an aerial photographer.

Lynn has two children, Elaine “Midge” Challup of Homer, Alaska and John Charles of Adrian, Michigan.
